

Firearm Safety Training in Public Schools

Consistent with R277-611, The Ranches Academy's board and administration may allow volunteers to instruct students or community members in firearm safety, with prior notice to the board and parents and students. If such instruction is allowed, administration shall implement procedures consistent with R277-611 to ensure that materials and instructors are approved in advance consistent with rule.